COMPANY PROFILE

Empowering Talent. Delivering Impact.

MEET OUR FOUNDER

Zenoxx Knowledge Services Pvt. Ltd. was founded in 2012 by Sushil Gupta, an early graduate of India's IT training wave in the 1990s. With a strong passion for education, an entrepreneurial mindset, and over two decades of experience in the IT sector, he established Zenoxx to deliver impactful, industry-relevant learning solutions.

Recognizing the rapidly evolving nature of the corporate and IT landscape, Sushil focused on building customized training programs that help organizations stay aligned with emerging technologies and business needs. His expertise in understanding client requirements enabled Zenoxx to serve a diverse clientele—from startups to established IT training companies.

Over the years, Zenoxx has grown into a trusted training partner, supported by a robust network of industry experts and a strong client base seeking tailored learning solutions. Prior to founding Zenoxx, Sushil gained valuable experience working with leading organizations such as IBM and NIIT.

OUR VISION

To be a globally trusted partner in corporate learning, enabling organizations to build future-ready, high-performing teams.

OUR MISSION

To deliver impactful, customized, and measurable training solutions that drive individual growth and business success.
